COMPLINE

Compline is the last of the Daily Offices, the four daily hours of prayer from the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer (BCP). The daily prayers have their roots in the Jewish practice of the synagogue. Compline is a contemplative service, emphasizing spiritual peace, that is prayed, read, chanted or sung as the final night prayer at the end of the day.

February and March Compline services will be sung by Dr. Chris LeCluyse.

Wednesday, February 24, 8:00 pm on Zoom
https://zoom.us/j/3960640083?pwd=TGhkaXlQVUI2UURmcjdld0J6ZERQdz09 Passcode: community

and on YouTube (Sung Compline with Chris)

This sung Compline features the traditional-language version. The Early Modern English of the service evokes the King James Bible and Rite I of the Episcopal Church, derived from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer.

The text order of worship will be provided each week.

Wednesday, March 10, 8:00 pm on Zoom
https://zoom.us/j/3960640083?pwd=TGhkaXlQVUI2UURmcjdld0J6ZERQdz09 Passcode: community

and on YouTube (Sung Compline with Chris)

This Compline will be sung in contemporary language, Rite II, BCP.

Dr. Chris LeCluyse is a professor in the English Department and the Writing Center director at Westminster College and sings professionally with a variety of choirs and early music ensembles. He is a founding member of Utopia Early Music (utopiaearlymusic.org). His recordings include Threshold of Night, a CD with Conspirare, nominated in 2009 for two Grammy awards: "Best Classical Album" and "Best Choral Performance." Dr. LeCluyse and his family are members of St. Mark's Cathedral, SLC.