

THE GOLDEN RULE

“Ascribe not to any soul that which thou wouldst not have ascribed to thee, and say not that which thou doest not.” Baha’u’llah (Baha’i)

“Just as you did for yourself, likewise do the same for others too.”
Buddha (Buddhism)

“Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.”
Jesus (Christianity)

“Do not do to others what you do not want done to yourself.”
Confucius (Confucianism)

“Do not to others what ye do not wish done to yourself.
This is the whole Dharma; heed it well.” Sage Vyasa (Hinduism)

“No one of you is a believer until you desire for another that which you desire for yourself.” Mohammad (Islam)

“What is hateful to you, do not do to your neighbor.
That is the entire Torah; the rest is commentary.” Rabbi Hillel (Judaism)

“Respect for all life is the foundation.” Daganawidah (Native American)

“Be not estranged from another, for in every heart pervades the Lord.”
Guru Arjan Dev (Sikhism)
