Governor
Declaration

Whereas, during the Salt Lake 2002 Olympic Winter Games, representatives of diverse faith traditions came together under the auspices of the Salt Lake Organizing Committee and formed an Interfaith Roundtable to support the 2002 Games and offer spiritual service for the greater global community;

Whereas, this work of interfaith dialogue and collaboration continues, by maintaining the Olympic legacy of respect for cultural diversity, human potential, good will and world peace, in order to promote harmony and understanding among peoples of all faiths, beliefs and cultures; and

Whereas, because there is a need for greater understanding between different beliefs and faith traditions, we join, in the spirit of collaboration and respect, in celebration with others in our community to envision an annual month dedicated to fostering appreciation for the diverse faiths and beliefs in Utah;

Now, Therefore, I, Gary R. Herbert, Governor of the State of Utah, do hereby declare February 2012, as

Interfaith Month
Many Faiths - One Family
