

The Truth Behind Religion

An audience engaging interfaith series

This lecture and discussion series on various faiths is aimed to help gain interfaith understanding and encourage an environment where those of diverse faiths or no faith, can practice their beliefs, ideals, values, and morals in a safe, respectful environment."

Lectures will focus on:

- Core doctrines and beliefs
- Misunderstandings
- Day to day life

Discussions will include:

- "How do my beliefs differ from those presented?"
- "What similarities do my beliefs have with the presenter?"
- "How do we create a respectful atmosphere when beliefs differ?"

Come Join the Discussions!

7:30 pm, Special Events Room, HWAC
Westminster College

January 31, 2012: Interfaith Panel introducing the series, Members of the Interfaith Roundtable discuss their beliefs and interfaith work in Salt Lake City.

Feb 16: Judaism

March 8: Catholicism

March 22: Islam

April 5: Mormonism

April 21: The Drop, an International Interfaith Service Project

A Collaboration of the Office of Spiritual Life at Westminster College and Salt Lake Interfaith Roundtable